Advice. Support. Peace of Mind.

Engaging a skilled employee from overseas is often a fitting solution for organisations looking to fill vacant positions.

EI's migration services provide businesses with the advice and support needed for peace of mind during the complex and often time-consuming migration process.

Migration services for businesses include:

- Helping employers gain Standard Business Sponsorship (SBS) status
- Helping employers nominate prospective employees for Temporary Business (Long Stay) (Subclass 457) visas
- Helping employers obtain permanent Employer Nominated Scheme (ENS) "Onshore" (856) or "Offshore" (121) visas
- Identifying concessions and other opportunities for migration to regional areas
- Helping prepare primary and secondary visa applications
- Advising employers on compliance issues once approved as a Standard Business Sponsor
- Drafting contracts in line with any applicable visa obligations
- Advising employers on how to terminate a sponsored employee

Migration services for individuals include:

- Assisting with primary and secondary temporary resident visa applications
- Applications for permanent migration
- Assisting with citizenship applications

Other services

- Employment law
- Recruitment
- Outsourced payroll & administration
- Employee incentives & recognition

EI's Managing Solicitor, Patricia Ryan, is a Registered Migration Agent (MARN 1173779).
